THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

Dedication Exercises at City Hall, October 28th.

A joint meeting was held Saturday evening in the Aldermen's room at the City Building, in reference to the dedication of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument. Owing to the lateness of the season it was decided not to hold the exercises out of doors, and the formal transfer of the monument to the city will take place at City Hall, Wednesday evening, October 28th. Owing to previous engagements of the hall an earlier date could not be filled.

The monument will be extended to the G. A. R. organizations, Army and Navy, Sons of Veterans, Mexican War Veterans, Army and Navy officers, officers of the Marine Hospital, Local Legion, United States Government officers, judges of the United States courts, county courts and other prominent officials, and Ladies' Relief Corps. The invitations were left in charge of a committee consisting of Gen. Brown, Aldermen Lewis, McCullough, and Secretary Roberts.

The monument grounds as well as the hall will be tastefully decorated, and a national salute will be fired from the monument grounds in the evening. Chandler's Band will furnish music for the occasion, assisted by Shaw's quartette, and a chorus of five hundred voices from the grand schools in the city.

The following committees were appointed: Music—Counsellor Fennell and Dan. Decorations—Major Melcher. Invitations—Secretary Roberts, Counsellor K. and J. L. Tracy. Order of Service—Major Melcher.

The exercises in City Hall were placed in charge of Gen. J. M. Brown and Alderman Lewis. General Brown will, in behalf of the monument committee, formally transfer the monument to the city. The details of the dedication have not been fully completed, but will consist of an address by Gen. Brown, and a response accepted by the monument to the city.
